

OATH OF THE HEALER'S PATH

I swear to use my power and judgment to bring the following oath and written covenant to fulfillment: To consider dear to me, as parents, those who have mentored me in my journey, and to hold all humanity in kinship, as mothers and fathers, brothers and sisters, daughters and sons. I will impart a knowledge of this art to such students as desire to follow this path. I will use my gifts to the benefit of all – the forgotten and the forgetful, the sick and the strong, the fettered and the free – in accordance with my ability and my judgment, keeping from them what is to their harm or injustice. And in a pure and holy way, I will guard my life and my gifts. Into as many houses as I may enter, I will go for the benefit of those within, while being far from all harmful activity, in all my conduct, speech, work, action or inaction. In humility of spirit, I will readily consult others whose arts and gifts can help meet a certain need. And I will hold in sacred confidence all that I come to know, in my work and in my daily life, as far as the law of justice permits, as written by God and man. Keeping this oath faithfully, may I long experience the joy of a life spent using my gifts to heal and to uplift, respected while I live and remembered with affection thereafter. May I be ever uplifted and upheld in rendering this oath fulfilled, preserving the finest traditions of my calling.

This I swear today,
